

North Yorkshire Children and family hub Centres near military bases:

Find out about the sessions, courses, activities, services and support our children and family hubs offer to families across North Yorkshire.

Our children and family hubs are located across the county and provide services for children and young people aged 0-19 and their families. Some of our activities are free for you to drop in, others need to be booked in advance, and some are by invitation or referral only. Just select your area below to download the full programme with details of what's on near you.

<https://www.northyorks.gov.uk/children-and-family-hubs>

Feel free to contact your local children and family hub to find out more, ask any questions, or to register to join in.

The list of children and family hubs below is not exhaustive, but could be a starting point when looking for information about sessions and groups going on in your new area. We would advise you to look at the website for further information and ring to check they are open or running a particular session before you arrange to call in:
