What people appreciate about me:

- I try to be a good listener.
- I am honest, caring and kind.
- I always try to go the extra mile if someone needs support or help.

What is important to me:

- My Family and Friends: being an MOD family for 28 years has meant I really value relationships.
- I value working for SENDIASS North Yorkshire. It is a fantastic team to work within and a privilege to work alongside the people in the best county ever (I live here though, so might be bias!)
- Travelling. I was brought up in Central and West Africa as a child and have moved many times since.
- I love live theatre and live music and will be happy to go to almost any performance possible!
- Not to judge people and to accept all people (no matter their age, background, culture) deserve to be respected.

How to support me:

- Please believe I am not judgemental I want you to be open and honest, as this helps me to understand more clearly.
- Life is so busy at work and at home so don't assume I don't care if I have forgotten to do something, please give me a nudge to remind me.
- Try not to use lots of acronyms, I do not like jargon as I start to lose focus on the conversation as I am trying to work out the meaning!
